

FOUR IN FAMILY KILLED BY TRAIN; TWO BADLY HURT

Parents, Three Children and Nephew in Auto Hit at Jersey Crossing.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 21.—A father, mother, son and daughter were killed, and another son and a nephew were badly injured, at Day's Crossing, near here, late yesterday afternoon, when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Pennsylvania Railroad train running full speed toward Trenton. The victims are:

Dead.
KENNEDY, FRANCIS T., fifty, well-to-do real estate operator, of No. 1500 Salem Avenue, Lyons Farms, near Newark.
KENNEDY, MRS. OLGA, thirty-seven, his wife.

KENNEDY, CHARLES L., twenty-two, son.
KENNEDY, ANITA, three, his daughter.

Injured.
KENNEDY, ARNOLD, seven, a son.
KENNEDY, CHARLES T., twenty-three, a nephew, driver of machine.

Exactly how the accident happened has not been learned by the authorities, for the only two survivors are in St. Francis's Hospital, Trenton, unable to talk, and the engineer and fireman of the train say the thing happened so suddenly they did not know just why the automobile was across the rails.

The train was bound from Camp Dix to Trenton and was travelling perhaps thirty-five miles an hour when it rounded a curve and tore down upon Day's Crossing, a notoriously dangerous spot. Four members of a family named Wailey of Burlington were killed in a machine there two years ago.

Just as the train sped around the bend the automobile appeared on the tracks. It was struck a terrific blow, directly in the center, and its occupants hurled in all directions.

The train carried the wreckage of the automobile nearly 100 yards before it could be stopped. When the crew ran back they found Mr. Kennedy and Edward had been killed instantly. The others were all unconscious.

Mrs. Kennedy died in a hospital at Bordentown, on the outskirts of Trenton, and the daughter, Anita, died at St. Francis's, Trenton, where the other two victims are. The doctors do not expect Arnold to recover.

50-CENT MAYOR BEATS $10 A YEAR RIVAL AT POLLS

Illinois Town Rises and Smiles
Effort to Raise Aldermen to $5.

HOOPESTON, Ill., April 21.—Political profiteering, which threatened this town has been smashed. In an exciting city election John A. Heaton has been re-elected Mayor on a platform continuing his salary at 50 cents a year, and the Aldermen at 25 cents.

A profiteering combine was formed in the City Council to raid the treasury by paying the Mayor $10 a year and the Aldermen $5 annually. The people, astonished by such temerity, re-elected the Mayor.

Reception Planned for Franklin statue on Arrival at Battery.

An elaborate celebration is being arranged under the auspices of the Sons of the American Revolution and associated patriotic associations for the reception of the Benjamin Franklin statue when it arrives at the Battery Saturday afternoon on its way to its destination, Waterbury, Conn. Mayor Hylan, Rear Admiral Huse, Brig. Gen. Weigel, M. Marcel Knecht and Consul General Gaston Liebert, representing France, will take part in the ceremonies.

$100,000 OPIUM SEIZED.

Found in Trunk at Grand Central.
Claimant Arrested.

While members of the Police Narcotic Squad were arresting Max Gordon, registered at the Hotel Aberdeen as from St. Louis, last night, other members seized a trunk at the Grand Central Terminal containing, they say, 125 pounds of gum opium, about $100,000 worth.

Commissioner Simon has had men watching Gordon for some days, and says they reported he was receiving big drug shipments from St. Louis and Detroit. The trunk was located two days ago. The detective tore off the identification tag and watched last night Gordon identify and claim the trunk and the arrest followed.

The ascendant feature of the Summer Fashion Shows which took place in Paris recently was the widespread use of red. Flame color, geranium, scarlet, rose and cerise blazed their way through the various displays of sport, street and evening apparel for Summer wear. Often these gay shades appeared in separate jackets and whole costumes.

Combinations of colors were also prominently featured, gray and yellow winning distinction, also rose, pink and bright yellow. Cherit evidenced a distinct preference for bright green.

Pelure d'oignon, a pale rust shade, was officially introduced as the fashionable color of the season.
